Reading that Feeds the Soul

One of the best books that I have ever read concerning the life we will experience after this life is “Heaven,” written by Randy Alcorn. Randy makes use of multiple scriptures to support his ideas. His book is thought provoking and presents varying viewpoints as he explains his viewpoint. His book has given me a wonderful glimpse of what to expect in the life to come that is very hopeful. This book will bless you and answer many questions you probably have in regards to heaven.
