

- Soul Food -

Reading that Feeds the Soul

This book is an excellent book that has challenged me in thinking about the types of prayers I pray. This book is also the genesis for the current sermon series. I think you will find this book very engaging and thought provoking in relation to prayer. I am excited to see what God does in our lives as we pray bigger and more specific prayers. The Circle Maker is one of my three favorite books in relation to prayer and was enjoyed by many on the leadership team as well.